[1] In some cases the identity of the Respondent is unknown to the complainant or the complainant did not disclose the identity of the Respondent. Information on third party respondents is not required per Executive Order 1095 (June 23, 2015).

[2] Investigations were not completed in cases where the Complainant did not pursue an investigation; the use of interim remedies resolved the matter to the Complainant's satisfaction; informal resolution was pursued; or where a referral is made to the appropriate department to handle a report that doesn't fall under the Executive Order.

[3] Investigations may commence in one fiscal year and be completed in the following fiscal year. Reports are resolved once an outcome is considered final. If a final outcome has not been determined before July 1st, the report is considered pending, and not counted per the Executive Order Annual Report requirements. Pending reports that are resolved during the next fiscal year are included in the following Annual Report's statistics. As of July 1, 2019, there were 3 investigations pending.

[4] Case 1: Expulsion; Case 2: Suspension of one year or more; Case 3: Suspension of one year or more.
